Disclaimer

The materials on the Community Foundation for Mason County website are provided "as is." Community Foundation for Mason County makes no warranties, expressed or implied, regarding the information and materials on this website.

Privacy Statement

Your privacy is very important to us. Our intention is to inform and educate visitors about our work as a grantmaker, community resource, and philanthropic partner to local individuals, families, and corporations. Community Foundation for Mason County is committed to honoring the privacy of all those we work with, including visitors to our website and subscribers to our electronic newsletters. Accordingly, we have developed this Policy so that you can understand how we collect, use, communicate, disclose, and use personal information.

The following outlines our privacy policy:

- We recognize that providing us with your personal information is an act of trust. When you visit the Community Foundation for Mason County online, you remain anonymous, as we do not require registration to view our website or access information.
- We may occasionally ask for your feedback via surveys or other communications to better understand your interests and needs. We will also request information through online forms used to register for a Community Foundation event or request use of our conference facilities. The Community Foundation does not share or make public any personal information gathered through our website.
- If you are a Community Foundation for Mason County fund holder and you use our online system, you provide personal information to authenticate your identity. That information is only used on this site and is not distributed or sold to any other party or site.

- We will protect personal information by reasonable security safeguards against loss or theft, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use, or modification. The Community Foundation utilizes a fully cloud-based solution hosted by Amazon Web Services (AWS). It used the highest standards for data security. Data in the AWS network is encrypted and hosted at secure data centers. Confidential payment data is not processed or saved on the system.

We are committed to conducting our business in accordance with these principles to ensure that the confidentiality of personal information is protected and maintained.

Third Party Sites

Throughout our website, we offer links to third-party sites. The inclusion of any link does not guarantee the accuracy of the materials or information on the site, nor does it imply endorsement by the Community Foundation of the site. Since we do not control those websites, we encourage you to review their privacy policies as well.

Communications

If at any time you wish to stop receiving the Community Foundation's electronic newsletters or other communications, or to be removed from our email list, you may unsubscribe from that list as explained in each message. Community Foundation for Mason County will not give your email addresses to other organizations; however, we may occasionally send you mailings regarding events, products, or services by reputable third parties if we think they may be of interest to you. In such circumstances, we do not provide the organization with your information but send the mail ourselves.
